

Joint PhD Colloquium between Classical Archaeology (Kiel University) and UrbNet (Aarhus University)
1 December 2022

Venue: UrbNet, Moesgård Allé 20, 4230-232, 8270 Højbjerg

- 08:20      Welcome
Rubina Raja
- 8:30–9:15      Form and Function: The Materiality of Ivory in the 5th-and 6th-Century North Sea Zone
Rowan English
- 9:15–10:00      Reuse and Spoliation in Hellenic Sanctuaries from the 5th to 2nd Centuries BC
Florian Schwake
- 10:00-10:30      Coffee Break
- 10:30–11:15      Urban Planning and Design: Exploring Visual Perception in Hellenistic City Foundations
Julia Heil
- 11:15–12:00      Roman Thermal Spas in the Microregion of Pergamon
Julika Steglich
- 12:00–12:45      The Decorations of the Fountains of Pompeii and their Meanings: The Case Study of Regio II of Pompeii
Antonio Monticolo
- 12:45–14:30      Lunch (Moesgaard Museum café)
If you want to visit the exhibitions, go to the ticket counter and state your name (@ UrbNet-based participants: show your AU access card for free entry).
- 14:30–15:15      Embracing the Dead in the Community Life. A Sensory Approach to the Funerary Contexts in the Punic Urban Fabric
Sara Mura
- 15:15–16:00      Model Minutia: Tracing Non-Ferrous Metal-Casting Models from Viking-Age Ribe through Ceramic Casting Moulds
Derek Parrot
- 16:00–16:45      What Do Statues Want? A Middle-Range Approach to Materiality and the Agency of Statues in Hellenistic and Roman Athens
Ditte Kvist Johnsen
- 16:45–17:15      Coffee Break
- 17:15–18:00      The Minute Coins of Palmyra: Preliminary Findings on the Small Change of Roman Syria
Nathalia B. Kristensen
- 17:45–18:30      Architectural Marble Decoration on the Forum of Ostia
Jesper V. Jensen
- 19:00–      Dinner (Restaurant Et, Åboulevarden 7, 8000 Aarhus C)